

Beaverton Hillsboro Republican Women's 2018 Candidate Dinner

Special Guest Speaker

Elizabeth Hovde

of The Oregonian/OregonLive

Elizabeth grew up in Seattle's Ballard neighborhood, home of lutefisk and bad driving. Before her work appeared in The Oregonian in 2008, Hovde worked for a decade as an editorial writer and columnist for The (Vancouver) Columbian, winning several Society of Professional Journalists awards. She started her newspaper career writing community columns for The Bellingham Herald and is a former communications director for the nonprofit Washington Family Council, working with former Seahawk turned visionary Jeff Kemp.

"Being Conservative in a Liberal Land."

Please join us Thursday Oct. 11

Rock Creek Country Club

5100 NW Neakahnie Ave, Portland, OR 97229

Here's your opportunity to dress up & bring a guest

RSVP by email to Juanita@plumhillwine.com

Check in begins at 5:00 * 5:15-6:15 cocktail hour

6:30 Dinner

Cost: $36.00 pp, includes dinner