2018 Election Spotlight

September 12, 2018

For the 2018 midterm elections, the NFRW's goal is to DEFY HISTORY by holding on to our Republican majorities in the House and the Senate (historically, the President's party almost always loses seats in the midterm election).

WE NEED YOU TO HELP!

Between now and election day, the NFRW will be profiling Republican candidates in the top Senate races as well as key Republican women in or running for the House. These races are key to maintaining Republican control of the House and Senate.

We Need Cathy McMorris Rodgers from Washington in the U.S. House!

WHY is CATHY running?

Cathy McMorris Rodgers grew up on a farm, working her family's fruit orchard. She knows she's living the American dream and works every day to ensure our children and grandchildren will have the same opportunities. "I'm running on my record of delivering real results for Americans and their families. I want to keep advocating for veterans, hydropower, timber, farmers and rural communities across Eastern Washington

- Ability Advocate: Cathy's oldest son, Cole, was born with Down's Syndrome, and she is a powerful advocate for people with disabilities, including leadership on the landmark ABLE Act in 2014 and the ABLE to Work Act and ABLE Financial Planning Act in 2017.
