The President's Message

Great spring weather ushered in two great Republican Women's events: the April 16 OFRW District 1 Spring Luncheon and the April 30 OFRW Day at the Legislature. Our own District 1 Co-directors Gail Wilhelms and Lois O'Brien organized and hosted the District 1 Spring Luncheon at the Rock Creek Country Club, home of the BHRW. Nearly 50 members and guests from four Clubs gathered for Republican camaraderie and inspiration and to hear Guest Speaker Joan Hunter, discuss the Daughters of the American Revolution. It was a marvelous patriotic day. Thanks to Gail and Lois. On April 30, five BHRW members, Betty Atteberry, Laurel Regan, Elizabeth Fischer, Joyce Handel and Alison Kettenhofen, and I traveled to Salem to join other over 100 OFRW members to show red-jacketed support for our Republican elected officials. We personally heard from a number of elected and GOP representatives who 1) thanked us for our presence on that day and our support throughout the year; 2) acknowledged that this legislative session, like none before, has been hostile of any Republican reason and constituent concern over the plethora of new laws the majority party deemed necessary for the citizens of Oregon; and 3) encouraged us to be ready, because when the public realizes the scope and burdens of all the new taxes and regulations, there will be a resurgence of Republican principles and election successes. I'm tying my knot to hang on - how about you?? Looking forward to BHRW camaraderie and inspiration as we move through our 2015 program of Republican and outreach.

HOW MUCH DID IT COST BLOOMBERG TO FORCE GUN CONTROL ON OREGONIANS?

When the Oregon Senate passed expanded background checks on April 14, it marked a change from 2013 and 2014—when the same type of legislation was taken up but defeated without even making it to the floor for a vote

What was the difference in 2015? One huge difference was the influx of Michael Bloomberg's money into the state, which showed itself not only in the establishment of an apparatus to help gun control candidates get elected but also in gifts to gun control senator Chuck Riley (D-Hillsboro).

Riley received considerable financial backing from Bloomberg-funded Everytown for Gun Safety in order to unseat gun control opponent former senator Bruce Starr (R-Hillsboro). It was Starr who had defeated background checks when they came up in 2013 and 2014.

According to OregonLive, Bloomberg-funded Everytown began setting up "robust" field staffs in April 2014 to help gun control candidates navigate the last months of the election cycle, leading up to November. Bloomberg did this same thing in "10 other states," but chiefly realized gains from this tactic in Oregon and Washington.

In addition to these staffs, Bloomberg-funded Everytown gave money to senator Chuck Riley, who was able to unseat senator Starr and vote "yes" for expanded background checks on April 14.

September 2014 estimates reported Riley received around $22,000 from Bloomberg-funded Everytown, but when the Oregon Secretary of State released official campaign donation figures, they showed that Riley actually received $75,000 from the Bloomberg-funded group.

Sen. Chuck Riley Equates Gun Control Laws with Slavery: "Right for the Time"

Sen. Chuck Riley (D-Hillsboro) shocked some gun rights advocates when he said slavery in the U.S. was "right for the time" according to a Supreme Court ruling of the day. The comment appeared to be defending slavery, although he made the comment to illustrate the power he believes lies with the Supreme Court and to support his views on gun control, which he said does not infringe on civil liberties given in the U.S. Constitution.

Bill Clinton's Loving Wife

If you happen to see the Bill Clinton 5-minute TV ad for Hillary in which he introduces the commercial by saying he wants to share some things we may not know about Hillary's background, beware. As I was there for most of their presidency and know them better than just about anyone, I offer a few corrections.

Bill says: "In law school, Hillary worked on legal services for the poor."

The facts are: Hillary's main extra-curricular activity in law school was helping the Black Panthers, on trial in Connecticut for torturing and killing a federal agent. She went to court every day as part of a law student monitoring committee trying to spot civil rights violations and develop grounds for appeal.

Bill says: "Hillary spent a year after graduation working on a children's rights project for poor kids."

The facts are: Hillary interned with Bob Truehaft, the head of the California Communist Party. She met Bob when he represented the Panthers and traveled all the way to San Francisco to take an internship with him.

Bill says: "Hillary could have written her own job ticket, but she turned down all the lucrative job offers."

The facts are: She flunked the DC bar exam; yes, flunked. It is a matter of record, and only passed the Arkansas bar. She had no job offers in Arkansas - none - and only got hired by the University of Arkansas Law School at Fayetteville because Bill was already teaching there. She did not join the prestigious Rose Law Firm until Bill became Arkansas Attorney General and was made a partner only after he was elected Arkansas Governor.

Bill says: "President Carter appointed Hillary to the Legal Services Board of Directors and she became its chairman."

The facts are: The appointment was in exchange for Bill's support for Carter in his 1980 primary against Ted Kennedy. Hillary then became chairman in a coup in which she won a majority away from Carter's choice to be chairman.

Bill says: "She served on the board of the Arkansas Children's Hospital."

The facts are: Yes, she did. But her main board activity, not mentioned by Bill, was to sit on the Walmart board of directors for a substantial fee. She was silent about their labor and health care practices.

Bill says: "Hillary didn't succeed at getting health care for all Americans in 1994, but she kept working at it and helped to create the Children's Health Insurance Program

By Dick Morris, former adviser to Bill Clinton

(CHIP) that provides five million children with health insurance."

The facts are: Hillary had nothing to do with creating CHIP. It was included in the budget deal between Clinton and Republican Majority Leader Senator Trent Lott. I know; I helped negotiate the deal. The money came half from the budget deal and half from the Attorney General's tobacco settlement. Hillary had nothing to do with either source of funds.

Bill says: "Hillary was the face of America all over the world."

The facts are: Her visits were part of a program to get her out of town so that Bill would not appear weak by feeding stories that Hillary was running the White House. Her visits abroad were entirely touristic and symbolic and there was no substantive diplomacy on any of them.

Bill says: "Hillary was an excellent Senator who kept fighting for children's and women's issues."

The facts are: Other than totally meaningless legislation like changing the names on courthouses and post offices, she has passed only four substantive pieces of legislation. One set up a national park in Puerto Rico. A second provided respite care for family members helping their relatives through Alzheimer's or other conditions. And two were routine bills to aid 911 victims and responders which were sponsored by the entire NY delegation. Presently she is trying to have the US memorialize the Woodstock fiasco of 40 years ago.

Here is what bothers me more than anything else about Hillary Clinton: She has done everything possible to weaken the President and our country (that's you and me!) when it comes to the war on terror

1. She wants to close GITMO and move the combatants to the USA where they would have access to our legal system.
2. She wants to eliminate the monitoring of suspected Al Qaeda phone calls to/from the USA.
3. She wants to grant constitutional rights to enemy combatants captured on the battlefield.
4. She wants to eliminate the monitoring of money transfers between suspected Al Qaeda cells and supporters in the USA.
5. She wants to eliminate the type of interrogation tactics used by the military & CIA where coercion might be used when questioning known terrorists even though such tactics might save American lives.

One cannot think of a single bill Hillary has introduced or a single comment she has made that would tend to strengthen our country in the War on Terror. But, one can think of a lot of comments she has made that weaken our country and make it a more dangerous situation for all of us. Bottom line: She goes hand in hand with the ACLU on far too many issues where common sense is abandoned.

Share this with every democrat you know. Ask them to prove Dick Morris wrong. Think about it --- Dick Morris has said all of this openly, thus if he were not truthful he'd be liable for defamation of character! And you better believe Hillary would sue him.

Is America ready for a woman president? Perhaps we are, but definitely NOT THIS one.

The Funny Side

(Or not so funny)

Say that again?

Only a politician could use that many words and say absolutely NOTHING! You don't wanna pass this one up!

Quote of the day, no, of the week, make that a month, yet it probably is quote of the year!

No, DECADE. Wait a minute. It's the greatest quote EVER!

"My accomplishments as Secretary of State? Well, I'm glad you asked! My proudest accomplishment in which I take the most pride, mostly because of the opposition it faced early on, you know... the remnants of prior situations and mindsets that were too narrowly focused in a manner whereby they may have over looked the bigger picture and we didn't do that and I'm proud of that. Very proud. I would say that's a major accomplishment."

- Hillary Clinton 11 March 2015

Could someone please tell me what she just said?

And she will be running for President
