You can testify at any point during a legislative session, but 2021 is unique. Every ten years the legislature is required to redraw its state and congressional district boundaries, a process known as redistricting. There are hearings scheduled for statewide testimony related to redistricting, and parts of Clackamas County are up tonight at 5:30pm. You can watch the hearings live or testify remotely.

Here is more information on the House Special Committee on Redistricting.

The majority of Clackamas County is in Congressional District 5, for which there will be hearings on March 18th and April 10th.
